

WAIVER OF LIABILITY

I understand that AIA's trip to Russia is an adventure involving travel outside the United States, staying in accommodations that may not meet the standards to which I am accustomed, travelling on airplanes and consuming food of a foreign culture.

While AIA has made a reasonable effort to plan a successful trip, I agree that travel is at my own risk. I freely and voluntarily release AIA and its Board of Directors from liability of all types including, without limitation, claims for bodily injury, illness, death, monetary loss, property damage, disease and inadequate medical treatment that may result from my participation in the AIA travel to Russia.

I represent that I am in good physical condition. I assume the risk of any consequences of participation in AIA's travel to Russia, whether foreseeable or unforeseeable. I recognize that I am travelling to locations that pose risks from terrorism, war, insurrection, or criminal conduct.

I represent that I have purchased travel health insurance which includes emergency medical evacuation and repatriation and that I have had an opportunity to consult with a physician experienced in the field of travel medicine.
